Special Problem 3.3 - 16

The current through a junction diode is known to be:

$$i_D(t) = 2.5 + 3.0\cos\omega t \qquad mA$$

This junction diode has an idealty factor of $n = 1.00$.

> Determine (approximately) the small-signal voltage across the entire junction diode.